

	Activity 1 The context of the English Civil War	Activity 2 What happened at the Battle of Naseby	Activity 3 Outcome and aftermath of the battle
Squirrels	Attend and join in the Naseby Battle Anniversary on 14 th June 2025
	Squirrel Story The King who wouldn't listen	Making Cavalier and Roundhead headwear	Cooking on a fire like soldiers (Backwoods Cooking)
		Visit the horses at Overstone or SJLC
Beavers	Attend and join in the Naseby Battle Anniversary on 14 th June 2025
	Beaver Story The King who wouldn't listen	Making Cavalier and Roundhead headwear / Learning to care for Horses (visit to a stables) or Cavalier and Roundhead Game, potentially Tug of War	Cooking on fire like soldiers (Backwoods Cooking) and packing a day rucksack for a day's soldier training
		Visit the horses at Overstone or SJLC
Cubs	Attend and join in the Naseby Battle Anniversary on 14 th June 2025
	Have a Battle of Naseby presentation at your meeting place*		New Model Army (discipline and rules) – Design your own rules for a Cub Activity.
	Activity Introduction Pack for Leaders and making Cavalier and Roundhead elements for Activity 2	Act out the Battle of Naseby with Cubs and Leaders acting out what happened using the animation on the website as a guide.	New Model Army (discipline and rules) – Design your own rules for Cub Activity.
		Visit the horses at Overstone or SJLC

Scouts	Attend and join in the Naseby Battle Anniversary on 14 th June 2025
	Have a Battle of Naseby presentation at your meeting place*		New Model Army rules and explain the fundamentals and that this is one of the reasons why the Roundheads won the Battle. Write a set of rules to follow to complete an evening of Backwoods Cooking / Survival Skills meeting.
	Activity Introduction Pack for Leaders with introductory activities	Visit the Battle site and go to a minimum of two monuments. or Set up your own orienteering course with QR Codes, which set out information about how the battle developed	New Model Army rules and explain the fundamentals and that this is one of the reasons why the Roundheads won the Battle. Write a set of rules to follow to complete an evening of Backwoods Cooking / Survival Skills meeting.
Explorers	Attend and join in the Naseby Battle Anniversary on 14 th June 2025
	Have a Battle of Naseby presentation at your meeting place*		New Model Army rules and explain the fundamentals and that this is one of the reasons why the Roundheads won the Battle. Write a set of rules to follow to complete a Survival Skills camp.
	Activity Introduction Pack for Leaders with introductory activities	Visit the Battle site and go to a minimum of two monuments. or Set up your own orienteering course with QR Codes, which set out information about how the battle developed	New Model Army rules and explain the fundamentals and that this is one of the reasons why the Roundheads won the Battle. Write a set of rules to follow to complete a Survival Skills camp.